BOBBY DAVRO

"BOBBY DAVRO" made his TV debut in 1981; his major breakthrough came with an appearance in "LIVE AT HER MAJESTYS" in 1983. This led to his own Saturday night series "DAVRO", "BOBBY DAVRO ON THE BOX", "BOBBYS SKETCH PAD" and "TV WEEKLY" which immediately topped the ratings for six consecutive years. In 1991 Bobby moved to the BBC and made three series, "PUBLIC ENEMY NUMBER ONE", "ROCK WITH LAUGHTER" and "RUN THE RISK".

In 1997 Bobby hosted for Yorkshire Television's "WINNER TAKES ALL" for 65 programmes. Bobby has been touring with 'SWINGIN' a tribute to the songs and music of "FRANK SINATRA" featuring Bobby's 15-piece orchestra and international recording star "KENNY LYNCH" In 2003 Bobby was involved in a brand new exciting show for channel 4, called 'THE GAMES' in which Bobby had to compete in several Olympic style events. Bobby recently joined the cast of "EASTENDERS" as lovable cockney rogue "VINNIE MONKS".

Last December he topped the bill in the Pantomime "Cinderella" at Milton Keynes alongside veteran Hollywood star "Mickey Rooney" He also performed in the ITV series of "DANCING ON ICE 2010" and now regards Skating as one of his added talents. Versatility is the key to Bobby's longevity, as a high profile personality. Be it in "TELEVISION", "VOICE OVERS", "PANTOMIME", "SUMMER SHOWS", "MUSICAL THEATRE", "CORPORATE ENTERTAINMENT", "AWARD PRESENTATIONS", "GOLF SHOWS" and "LATE NIGHT CABARET". Bobby is due to appear in the Pantomime 'Jack and the Beanstalk' at The Orchard Theatre in Dartford this Christmas from the 4th December.

Bobby lives in Surrey with his three daughters Brittany, Tierney and Marnie. In his rare moments away from the world of show business, Bobby likes nothing better than a game of golf, a game of snooker, a spot of fishing, or a glass of wine in front of the telly.

Bobby recently played the Scarecrow in the Wizard of OZ tour for New World Productions. The tour ran from April 6th through to early May at various theatres across the country.
